In the Wake of the Game

By GUS MALBERT

Never before in the history of the Virginia League have two teams played thirty-seven innings in two games. Petersburg and Richmond established the record, and we might kick in with the opinion that it will not be duplicated in many a day. The first game of the series concluded yesterday, in which the much desired first place was at stake, went fourteen innings to a 3 to 2 score. The second required only the regulation number of rounds, and finished 4 to 3. The third again took fourteen innings to a 3 to 3, no-decision outcome, making the thirty-seven innings count for just two battles.

In the thirty-seven innings there were eighteen runs scored, and in both of the games won by Petersburg, Richmond was behind but one run. Not within our recollection have any two teams put up the defensive game shown by these two clubs in this series. True, there were cracks and costly cracks, as, for instance, Strain's wild leave, in the second engagement. But each team was anxious to win, and both were working under high nervous tension, which probably accounts for the errors recorded.

It was truly a wonderful set of games, and proves that Richmond and Petersburg are so evenly matched that when the dust comes, neither will lead the other by any too comfortable a margin. Richmond took the lead in all of the games, but the Goobers battled from behind, overtaking the Griffins twice and tying them once.

baseball to take his place until he is able to do himself justice. He expects the youngster to come in during the early part of next week. He is also after a pitcher. Clunk Coombs, the college boy, from Georgia, has not reported and nothing has been heard from him, therefore, Steve will hustle in another direction to have a slaban ready when the hard grinding days of August roll around.

A number of youngsters have written in telling of the "greatest play I have ever seen." Practically all are interested and will be printed. If you are an amateur, play on a team or simply attend and watch, write in, and if it is prepared well enough and tells a story interesting enough, it will appear in The Times-Dispatch, and you will get 50 cents for your trouble.

Joe Boehling went after the season's record for consecutive games won and broke it. He now has eleven in a row. More power to him, and isn't it about time that somebody was taking the initiative in preparing a reception for him when he comes home after the season's work is over?

The Giants have met their deadliest foe and most feared enemy, the Pirates, three times and have won three times. If there were skeptics who couldn't believe that the Giants would finish in front, they must have been convinced by this time.

Washington is making a wonderful showing. The trip through the West has been the best the Climbers have had. The one trouble is that the Athletics refuse to slump.

Cobb Would Quit Tigers

Ty Cobb's batting face and a photograph of the Georgia Peach sliding into second, enveloped in the inevitable dust-cloud. The astonishing statement given out by Ty Cobb to the effect that he would be extremely pleased if the owners of the Detroit Club would trade him to the Cincinnati Reds, has caused the fans to speculate as to just which club on the American League circuit would dicker with President Xavix, of the Tigers for the release of Cobb. The championship of the American League is certainly a wonderful player, one of the greatest that ever lived, but like many another star he is handicapped by a temperamental fault that does not make for the success of any team with which he may be tied up. Critics have fastened to Cobb the reputation of being a disorganizer, a fault that no manager, viewing the Georgia wonder from a trading standpoint, would overlook. Hence, it will not be a very easy matter for the Henry Held for Court as Result of Stabbing Affray at Gettysburg.

Gettysburg, Pa., July 23.—W. B. Henry, of Philadelphia, who is alleged to have stabbed nine persons at a Gettysburg hotel during the recent anniversary celebration of the famous battle, was given a hearing in seven of the cases to-day, and held for court in each. One case was dismissed through the nonappearance of Frank E. Howe, of Baltimore, the person alleged to have been stabbed, and the ninth case involving wounds received by State Police.

WEEK-END TRIPS CHEAP

Everybody will admit that the week-end rates offered by the Norfolk and Western, between Richmond and the seashore, are cheap. The fare to Norfolk is only $2.00 for the round trip, and to Virginia Beach only 25 cents more. The tickets are sold for all trains Friday and Saturday, and are good for return trip until the following Monday.

liceman Farber, was heard the day following the assault, Henry giving $2,500 bail for further appearance. Bail was placed to-day at $3,000, and immediately furnished for appearance at the August term of court.

Two suits to recover damages have been brought against Henry, one by J. B. Wineman, of Gettysburg, for $2,000, and the other by Sergeant Edward Carroll, U. S. A., for $1,000.

The stabbing occurred during an altercation which resulted from a remark passed about Abraham Lincoln, to which exception was taken by a veteran.

Henry is a native of Virginia, where his family is prominent.

RAILROAD LEASE BLOCKED

New Jersey Commission Rules Against Line's Transfer to Pennsy. Trenton, N. J., July 23.—The public utilities commission to-day withheld its approval of a lease by the West Jersey and Seashore Railroad of its property to the Pennsylvania Railroad Company for 999 years. The West Jersey has been practically owned and operated by the Pennsylvania for a number of years.

The decision of the commission said a lease for such a long period is tantamount to a conveyance of the fee. The proposed lease guaranteed the West Jersey a dividend of 6 per cent per annum. The West Jersey refused to give the commission assurance that a plea of the guaranteed rental would not at some future time be urged in bar of a determination to fix just and reasonable rates.

GENERAL STRIKE IN COPPER MINES

Men Called Out, and Tie-Up of Calumet and Hecla Is Complete.

Calumet, Mich., July 23.—A general strike of copper miners, called here to-day, developed its first violence to-night, when Captain Thomas Matthews of No. 4 shaft, of the Calumet and Hecla mine, was killed by a stone hurled by an unidentified striker. Matthews suffered a deep laceration of his scalp, but his condition is not serious. More than 1,000 men are said to be on strike. The consequence of the strike is the Calumet branch, the only shaft in operation to-day, were shut down at night, making the tie-up of Calumet and Hecla complete. Twenty mines in this and neighboring counties were closed this morning. The strike was called by the Western Federation of Miners. Only from a fifth to a quarter of the miners belong to the union, but it has been found impossible to work the properties with these men out. The men demand recognition of the Western Federation of Miners, an eight-hour day, abolition of the one-man drill and better working conditions.

New York, July 23.—The death of Alexander Fullerton, a noted student of theosophy, at a sanitarium on Long Island Sound, Monday night, became known to-day. For many years he was American secretary of the Theosophical Society, of which Mrs. Annie Besant was president. He was a man of independent means, and he devoted his whole fortune, as well as his life, to the study and dissemination of the principles of theosophy. NO ALARM FELT BY GOVERNMENT

Peking Has Taken Firm Stand Toward Suppression of Rebellion.

Peking, July 23.—The government professes to view the revolutionary movement in the south without alarm. The southern troops from Nanking, known as the "Punish Yuan" expedition, have suffered a fresh reverse, and retreated from Suchow Fu and taken up a strong position at Linhaiwan, in the adjoining province of Anhwei, where the Tien Tsin and Nanking Railway crosses the Twai River, to await the arrival of the Canton expedition, which is expected to land 15,000 troops at Pukow.

The government declares the navy will sink every ship engaged in navyping the Canton expedition if ever it starts.

A manifesto has been issued, stripping General Chen Chi-mei, ex-Minister of Commerce, and General Huang Sing, former Generalissimo of the revolutionary army and now commander of the southern army, of the ranks and orders, offering a reward to any of their followers who arrest or kill them and a pardon to all rebels who surrender, except those leaders.

President Yuan Shi Kai's firm determination to suppress the rebellion is restoring confidence among the wavering Chinese, and has elicited the approval of all the legations with the exception of the Russian and Japanese.
